

PRESS RELEASE

Second Queens' Distinguished Lecture in Law

Redress Solutions Prizes for Academic Excellence

Redress Solutions LL.M Studentship

Redress Solutions PLC and Queens' College, University of Cambridge are delighted to host the second Queens' Distinguished Lecture in Law which will be held at Queens' College on the 19th October 2015. It will be delivered by Lord Grabiner, QC, Master of Clare College, Cambridge. He will be speaking on "Illegality and Restitution explained by the Supreme Court in Patel vs. Mirza". The Queens' Distinguished Law Lecture is now an annual event which exposes members of the College and distinguished guests to the most advanced thinking on the law. In conjunction with the lecture, Redress Solutions PLC is sponsoring several prizes and a studentship for meritorious graduate and undergraduate students to be awarded by the Director of Studies in Law at Queens'. These include the Redress Solutions Prize for academic excellence in Law and the Redress Solutions Studentship for LL.M students which will be presented by Lord Grabiner on the day.

Director of Studies in Law at Queens' College and Chair of the Faculty of Law at the University of Cambridge, Professor Richard Fentiman, said "This important event reflects the long-standing reputation of Queens' College for teaching and research in law. Lord Grabiner has unrivalled experience at the Commercial Bar and has been involved in many of the highest profile commercial disputes fought in the English courts. We look forward to a stimulating analysis of a landmark Supreme Court decision by one of the country's foremost lawyers."

Marius Nasta LL.M, Chief Executive of Redress Solutions PLC and an alumnus of Queens' College said: "The inaugural Queens' Distinguished Lecture in Law delivered by Lady Hale was a tremendous success which attracted a large and enthusiastic audience. Redress has sponsored several prizes and an LL.M Studentship which were awarded last year on the recommendation of the Director of Studies in Law at Queens' to talented and hardworking students. I am delighted that Redress will continue to sponsor both the lecture and the various prizes and studentship for several years to come. I very much look forward to Lord Grabiner's lecture and to continuing to support the growth and the development of the Law teaching programme at Queens".

Note to Editors

About Queens' College, University of Cambridge: one of the oldest, largest and most famous of Cambridge colleges, Queens' provides a world-class, research-led education for almost 1,000 students. It aims to attract the best and brightest scholars globally, irrespective of background. Its reputation for excellence in Law has been based most recently on luminaries such as Sir Arthur Armitage, Sir Derek Bowett and Professor John Tiley.

About Redress Solutions PLC: Redress Solutions PLC is a leading third party litigation funder based in London and a member of the Association of Litigation Funders of England and Wales. Marius Nasta delivered a lecture to the LL.M class at the Cambridge Law Faculty on third party litigation funding 2015. He himself studied for the LLM at Queens' College in the early 1990s.

Contacts:

At Queens' College:

For Event administration: Mrs Fran Wagstaff

alumnierevents@queens.cam.ac.uk or 01223 331944

For Queens' College development: Mr Rowan Kitt, Development Director & Fellow

email: development.director@queens.cam.ac.uk

website: www.queens.cam.ac.uk

At Redress Solutions PLC:

Mr Marius Nasta, Chief Executive;

tel: 0207 4953900;

email: mnasta@redressolutions.co.uk;

website: www.redressolutions.co.uk