

PRESS RELEASE

Sixth Queens' Distinguished Lecture in Law

Redress Solutions Prizes for Academic Excellence

Redress Solutions LLM Studentship

Redress Solutions PLC and Queens' College, University of Cambridge are delighted to host the sixth Queens' Distinguished Lecture in Law which will be held at Queens' College on the 14th October 2021. This year the lecture will be delivered by Lady Arden of Heswall DBE, Justice of the Supreme Court, who will be speaking on "Does English law have a problem with dignity?". The Queens' Distinguished Law Lecture is (normally) an annual event which exposes members of the College and distinguished guests to the most advanced thinking on the law.

In conjunction with the lecture, Redress Solutions PLC is sponsoring several prizes and a studentship for meritorious graduate and undergraduate students to be awarded by the Director of Studies in Law at Queens'. These include the Redress Solutions Prize for academic excellence in Law and the Redress Solutions Studentship for LLM students which will be presented on the day.

Arthur Armitage Fellow in Law at Queens' College and former Chair of the Faculty of Law at the University of Cambridge, Professor Richard Fentiman QC, said: "We are delighted to welcome Lady Arden to Queens' for the latest in this important series of lectures. The Distinguished Lecture gives our students an unrivalled opportunity to hear the views of the country's most eminent lawyers and engage in informed debate about the law. It highlights our commitment to offer them the best in legal education, a commitment which Redress Solutions does so much to support".

Marius Nasta LLM, Chief Executive of Redress Solutions PLC and an alumnus of Queens' College said: "This year marks the sixth anniversary of the Queens' Distinguished Lecture in Law and builds on the huge success of previous lectures given by Lady Hale, Lord Gabor, Lord Falconer, Beverly McLachlin and Sir Guy Newey. Redress continues to proudly sponsor several prizes as well as an LLM Studentship which are awarded on the recommendation of Professor Fentiman to talented and hardworking students. I very much look forward to Lady Arden's lecture and to continuing to support the growth and the development of the Law teaching programme at Queens'".

Note to Editors

About Queens' College, University of Cambridge: one of the oldest and largest Colleges in the heart of Cambridge, Queens' provides a world-class, research-led education for almost 1,000 students. It is committed to enabling the widest possible participation to attract the best and brightest scholars globally. Its reputation for excellence in Law has been based most recently on luminaries such as Sir Arthur Armitage, Sir Derek Bowett, Professor John Tiley and His Hon Judge Stuart Bridge.

About Redress Solutions PLC: Redress Solutions PLC is a leading investor in legal claims based in London and a member of the Association of Litigation Funders of England and Wales. Marius Nasta delivered lectures to the LLM and civil procedure class at the Cambridge Law Faculty on litigation funding. He himself studied for the LLM at Queens' College in the early 1990s.

Contacts:

At Queens' College:

For Queens' College development: Mr Rowan Kitt, Development Director & Fellow

email: development.director@queens.cam.ac.uk

website: www.queens.cam.ac.uk

At Redress Solutions PLC:

Mr Marius Nasta, Chief Executive;

tel: 0207 4953900;

email: mnasta@redressolutions.co.uk;

website: www.redressolutions.co.uk